

The Daily Courant.

Monday, December 1. 1707.

London, December 1.

Late on Friday Night, arriv'd the Mail from Holland of Tuesday last.

From the Leiden Courant, dated Dec. 7.

Madrid, November 15.

Several Projects for raising a Sum sufficient for carrying on the War the next Campaign, have been debated in Council; but none was judg'd so expedient as for the King to ask a Free Gift of all his Subjects. The Court is in Hopes that the Gallies will arrive the Beginning of the approaching Year, and supply the King's Coffers with a considerable Sum of Money. They are diligently employ'd at Cadix in fitting out the Flotilla for New Spain; and 6 French Men of War lye there, who 'tis suppos'd are to convoy them.

From the Paris Gazette, dated December 3.

Lerida, Nov. 19. The Garrison of the Castle march'd out the 14th, at the Breach, in Number 1000 Men, without including the Sick and Wounded, with Arms and Baggage, Drums beating, Match lighted, and 2 Pieces of Cannon, according to the Capitulation. The Duke of Orleans made the Prince of Darmstadt a Present of 2 other Pieces of Cannon and 1 Mortar. He pardon'd the Peasants and Townsmen, and gave them Leave to return to their Houses with what they had carry'd with them into the Castle; and that they might not be molested, he caus'd all the Troops to retire out of the Town, and forbid them to return into it till the Inhabitants were peaceably settled. The 15th his Royal Highness sent the Count d'Etain with 2000 Horse detach'd out of all the Cavalry, to establish Contributions throughout the Plains of Urgel, and in the Country beyond, as far as Tarragona. M. d'Arennes was likewise detach'd with a Body of Foot, to march into the Kingdom of Valencia, and attack the Town of Morella, within 7 Leagues of Tortosa, possess'd by Miquelets. Since the taking of Lerida, many Inhabitants of the Mountains have return'd to Obedience. The Duke of Orleans will set out the 22d or 23d for Saragossa, thence to go to Madrid; and Part of his Household are already gone before.

From the Amst. Cour. and Gaz. dated Decem. 6.

Vienna, Nov. 23. The Commissioners appointed to put in Execution the Treaty with Sweden relating to Silesia, not having begun to act till the 31st of October, and since done little or nothing, Count Zinzendorf (who arriv'd here a few Days ago) has plainly remonstrated to his Imperial Majesty that the Swedes grow impatient about it, and will be content with nothing less than the exact and intire Performance of the Treaty: Whereupon positive Orders are sent for executing it according to the Letter, without losing Time by treating with the Protestants to accept other Churches in Exchange for some of those that were taken from them. 'Tis advis'd from Turkey, that the Porte is dissatisfied with the Venetians; that some Turkish Ministers give Ear to French Counsels; but that in all Likelihood the Ottoman Court will still maintain the Peace with the Emperour. The 19th Instant Count Illiershaff Chancellour, and M. Samogi Secretary of the Kingdom of Hungary, with Count Alexander Ordeti, went from hence to Presbourg, to be assistant to the Cardinal of Saxe-Zeyts in treating of an Accommodation with the Malecontents; who 'tis advis'd have entertain'd a high Opinion of his Eminency. Mean while Parties of the Malecontents have committed great Ravages and Cruelties about Oedenburg and in Stiria, which is but an ill Specimen of their Disposition to Peace. The States of the Lower Austria find some Difficulty to settle Ways and Means for raising the Supply requir'd of them; and hold Conferences about it daily. There is a Talk at this Court, of renewing the Proceedings against the Duke of Mantua, in Order to have him put under the Ban of the Empire by the Diet at Ratisbon.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 6.

Breslau, Nov. 20. On Thursday last the Gates of this City were kept open till 8 at Night, when the Imperial Commissioners arriv'd from the Principality of Wolaw: To Day they go from hence to Brieg; where the Lutherans of the Principality of Munsterberg are to attend them and Baron Strahlenheim, to give in their Account what Churches and Schools in that Principality ought to be restor'd to them pursuant to the Treaty with Sweden. Within a Day or 2, a fresh Order came from the Emperour directed to the foresaid Commissioners, by which the Roman Catholick Clergy are enjoyn'd on the severest Penalties, to restore without further Delay all the Churches and Schools belonging to the Protestants; his Imperial Majesty being absolutely determin'd to make good the foremention'd Treaty. The Jesuites in particular, make great Opposition to it, urging that tho' the least Part of them are Natives of Silesia, they have contributed great Sums to the repairing of Churches, &c. in this Country; and that when they are reimburs'd 180000 Rix-dollars, they will resign: But Baron Strahlenheim rejects this Proposition.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Decem. 6.

Letters from Poland of the 24th of November, confirm that the Swedish Army had decamp'd from about Slupza, to advance towards Thorn: But 'twas not known which way they design'd afterwards to direct their March. Some are of Opinion that they will pass the Vistula below Thorn; but that they will not move to any great Distance from Prussia, that they may preserve the Commodiousness of the Sea, for subsisting their Troops during the Winter.

From the Harlem Courant, dated December 6.

Dantzick, Nov. 25. We have no News from the Swedish Army: But we are inform'd half that Army is to Winter in Prussia. The Kings of Sweden and Poland are expected here; and 'tis said they intend to Invite the States of Poland hither, to confirm King Stanislaus.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Decemb. 6.

Letters from Milan of the 22d of November advise, that all the Troops appointed to be transported to Catalonia, were arriv'd near Final, and would imbarck by the End of this Month: For which Service considerable Remittances were come from the Queen of Great Britain and the States General. These Letters add, that Prince Eugene was preparing to go from Milan to Vienna.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Decemb. 6.

Paris, Decemb. 2. Great Diligence is us'd in raising Recruits to fill up all our Regiments on the Rhine and in the Netherlands before the End of February next. The raising of 10000 Men for recruiting and reinforcing our Army in Spain, was begun in all the Provinces the 22d of last Month, and those Men are to rendezvous at Bayone by the 15th of January. The Marshal de Catinat has receiv'd 10000 Livres out of the Royal Treasury, for preparing his Field-Equipage against the ensuing Campaign.

Paris Decemb. 2. Our Letters from Spain tell us, that when the Prince of Darmstadt came out of

of the Castle of Lerida, the Duke of Orleans caus'd him to be complimented on the brave Defence he had made, and made him a Present of 2 Pieces of Cannon with 1 Mortar and Ammunition for several Discharges. The Prince accepting them sent a Gentleman to return his Royal Highness's Compliment, and to recommend to him the Inhabitants and Miquelets remaining in the Place. His Royal Highness has acquainted the King that the taking of Lerida has open'd a Way to him to extend Contributions very far into Catalonia, and that he has distributed his Army into Winter-Quarters along the Frontier of that Principality, in such a Manner that on Occasion he can soon draw them together. He desires the King that he may have the Recruits for his Army as soon as possible, because the Season in that Country will permit the Opening of the Campaign earlier than in other Parts. Upon this, the King has renew'd his Orders in most express Terms to all the Intendants of Provinces, that the Number of Recruits to be rais'd by the Parishes, may be compleated with all imaginable Diligence; it being his Majesty's Intention that his Army in Spain should be in a Condition to act before all the rest. This does not hinder however, but that Care is taken to fill up the Regiments of the other Armies: To that End the Officers are to spread themselves in the Provinces, to lift Men: And those who compleat their Companies by a certain Time, are promis'd a Gratification double to what was usual. 'Tis rumour'd That some Regiments have Order to approach Neufchatel: But the most intelligent Persons give no Credit to it: Their Reason is, that such a Proceeding could only serve to alarm the Swifs, when 'tis the Interest of the Court to cajoll rather than irritate them, having Need of Horses and Men from Switzerland for their Troops.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated December 6.

Mons, Decemb. 2. The Elector of Bavaria has given Directions for storing all the Magazines in this City. The Intrenchments along the Hainne, from hence to Pieton, are strengthen'd, and furnish'd with Forts. The Elector designs to make a Journey to the French Court at Christmas.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Decem. 6.

Hague, Decemb. 5. We have receiv'd Advice, that the Roman Catholick Communities of Landeron and Cressier have acknowledg'd the King of Prussia as Prince of Neufchatel, and done Homage to his Minister Count Metternich; after some Troops sent from Neufchatel had dispos'd them to hearken to Reason.
